THE Boston- AND COUNTRY Gazette, JOURNAL.

No. 844.

Containing the freshest Advices, Foreign and Domestic.

MONDAY, June 10, 1771.

Messieurs EDES & GILL,

By inserting the following, you will oblige many of your constant Readers.

THO' Governor Endicot is fleer'd at in the New-England History, as so precise a Man that King Charles the IId desired the Colony to remove him from the Government, (than which nothing could have been said more to his Honor) it would not be amiss for the Author frequently to have in his Mind, that Tenderness of Conscience, which was so conspicuous in him, and other Governors, which this Land was formerly blest'd with.

Not to insist on their Zeal against Popish Ceremonies; nothing could have induced them to have spent half the Day in luxurious and costly Feasting; and then to renew the same the Night after—frolicking and dancing with Officers of the Navy and Army, Commissioners, and other boon Companions of both Sexes. For, this is that very Revelling, which the Apostle Peter saith the Heathens repented of, when they named the Name of Christ. 1 Pet. Chap. iv. Ver. 3.

Tho' a Minister lately was so polite, as to commend a certain Gentleman, publickly, and to his Face, for his great Piety, and being a Pattern for other Christians to follow; we are well satisfied no Man who sees him who is invisible, and sets the Lord as present before him, will ever follow him in this Practice. Were there that godly Discipline in the Churches of New-England, which once there was, he would be "in Danger of being called in Question," for the Revellings of last Tuesday Night. & vid pa. 496.

All Persons indebted to, or that have any Demands on the Estate of EDWARD SHEAFFE, Esq; late of Charlestown, deceased, are desired to apply to his Executors, NATHANIEL GORHAM, THOMAS DANFORTH.

Any Person possessed of Books belonging to the Deceased, are desired to return them.

All Persons indebted to, or that have any Demands on the Estate of Mr. Jonathan Howard, late of Braintree, Deputy-Sheriff, deceas'd, are desired to bring in their Accounts to Thomas Penniman, of Stoughton, Executor to said Estate, in Order for Settlement.

N. B. Those who have any Demands on said Deceased as Deputy-Sheriff, are more especially desired to make their Demands without Delay.

BENEVOLUS, in Mr. Draper's Gazette seems to have no doubts in his mind, but that "a general air of satisfaction arising from the accounts given in the last Mondays papers of the present state of our publick affairs will shew itself universally thro' the province". I have no inclination to disturb the sweet repose of this placid gentleman; but I must confess I see no cause for such a general air of satisfaction from those accounts, and I will venture to add, that there is no appearance of it in this town—Does Benevolus think it is possible for the good people of this province to be satisfied, when they are told by the Governor, as appears by the last Mondays papers, that he is restrained from holding the court in its antient, usual and most convenient place without his Majesty's express leave? Does not the charter say that the Governor shall have the power of acting in this matter "as he shall judge necessary"? Is it not of great importance to the welfare of the province that the Governor should be vested with such a power, and that he should exercise it without restraint? While he is, or thinks himself fetter'd, by an absolute instruction to hold the assembly out of the town of Boston, to the inconvenience of the members and the injury of the people, as the present House of Representatives express it, can he be said to have the free exercise of all the powers vested in him by the charter, which is our social compact? Will it yield such a general satisfaction to the people as Benevolus expects, to see their Governor thus embarrass'd in his administration, and to hear him expressly declaring, that he must ask leave, and be determin'd by the judgment of another in a matter, in which it is his indispensible duty to act with freedom, and by the determination of his own judgment.—Is not this power devolv'd upon him by the constitution of the province for the good of the people? Is it not a beneficiary grant, and therefore a right of the people? And if instructions may controul him in the exercise of one charter right, may they not controul in the exercise of any or every one? And yet Benevolus would fain have it thought that there is a general satisfaction in the town of Boston arising from this account, and doubts not but it will run thro' the province. Does not the present House of Representatives in their Remonstrance to the Governor against the holding the assembly at Cambridge, instead of "departing from the principles" as Benevolus would insinuate, adopt the remonstrances of the two houses of the last year as founded upon just principles? Do they not tell his Excellency that the holding the assembly at Cambridge "was consider'd as a GRIEVANCE by the people in general in the province; and that while it is continued it will have a tendency to prevent a restoration of that harmony, between the several branches of the general assembly, which is so earnestly to be desired by all good men"? And is it so pleasant a story to be told to the people of the province, that the Governor either cannot, or will not, remove a Grievance of so fatal a tendency, though expressly vested by the charter with the power of doing it if he pleases, without asking leave to do it? How then can Benevolus possibly entertain the least hopes that a general air of satisfaction will run thro' the province? Is not this Instruction a novelty? Was ever a Governor before thus restrain'd? And is it not a mortifying circumstance that a gentleman from whom the clergy of the province, (I mean the goodly number of SEVENTEEN out of near four hundred in the province, full seven eighths of whom never heard that an address was intended) have express'd the most sanguine expectations as being born and educated among us, and who we are told accepted the government with great reluctance, should submit to be shackled with an instruction so grievous to the people while it is obey'd: And if HE is as resolv'd as any other Governor would be, to make Instructions the rule of his governing, and give them the force of laws in this province, as he certainly appears to be, what "distinguishing mark of favor" is it, or what satisfaction can it afford the people in general, that "a native of the province is appointed to preside over it"?—Surely Benevolus must either be totally inadvertent to the accounts of the state of our publick affairs as given to us in the last Mondays papers, or he must have altogether confided in the accounts of a confused writer in the Evening-Post, who in the old stile of the hackney'd writers in Bernard's administration, tells us that FACTION is now at an end; and with an awkward air of gravity insinuates, that the people, after having nobly struggled for their freedom, are, under the benign influence of the present administration, "returning to their right senses". A firm and manly opposition to the attempts that have been made, and are still making, to enslave and ruin this continent, has always been branded by writers of this stamp, with the name of a FACTION. Governor Bernard used to tell his Lordship, that it was an "expiring faction"; with as little reason it is now said to have given up the ghost: Gladly would some, even of the Clergy, persuade this people to be at ease; and for the sake of peace under the administration of "a son of the province", to acquiesce in unconstitutional revenue acts, arbitrary ministerial mandates, and absolute despotic independent governors, &c. &c. But the time is not yet come; and I am satisfied that, notwithstanding the address of a few who took the opportunity to carry it through, while only the small number of twenty-four were present, there is in that venerable order a great majority, who will not go up to the house of Rimmon, or bow the knee to Baal. CANDIDUS.

In COUNCIL 7th June 1771.

THE Committee appointed the first Instant to prepare an Answer to his Excellency's Speech at the Opening of the Session, reported the following——Read and accepted Nemine Contradicente, and Ordered that Isaac Royall, William Brattle, James Russell, Jeremiah Powell and Samuel Dexter, Esqrs. be a Committee to wait on his Excellency therewith,

THO. FLUCKER, Secr'y.

May it please your Excellency,

THE Board having considered your Excellency's Speech to both Houses at the Opening of this Session beg Leave to return you our unfeigned Thanks for the kind Representation you have transmitted to England of the good Disposition of the People of this Province to promote Order and a due Submission to Government, which hath given so great Satisfaction to his Majesty.

We perswade ourselves that every Day will give your Excellency fresh Instances of the unshaken Loyalty of the good People of this Province, to the best of Kings, hoping that under your wise Administration, we shall be again an happy People, happy in the Favor of the King, happy in your Excellency, as the Father of your Country——We will from Duty to his Majesty, from the sincerest Affection to your Excellency, and the most ardent Love to our native Country, do every Thing within our Department that it may be so. As to the State and Circumstance of that Part of the Province which lies to the East and North of Penobscot-River, where Settlements are making every Day by Persons who have no Colour of Title, we apprehend with your Excellency that they deceive themselves with a groundless Expectation of acquiring a Title by Force of Possession, and are willing to do every Thing we can, in Conjunction with the other Branches of the Legislature, to convince them that they are mistaken.

We fully agree with your Excellency in Sentiment, that the Militia of this Province has of late Years been in a declining State, and through some unhappy Cause, its Lustre and Dignity is much eclipsed, the most natural and obvious Reason of such Declension, that we can discover, lies in the Inattention and Neglect of the Officers: For it is very observable through the Country that wherever the Officers appointed to command the Militia are understanding and alert in their Duty, the Soldiery are pleased with, and readily comply with the Commands of their Officers, to appear upon Musters. From which appearance we are necessarily obliged to believe that augmenting the Fines upon the Soldiery in general, will not remedy the Disease.

But suffer us, Sir, to give it as our Opinion that the only Remedy to raise the dejected, and sinking Military Spirit of the People to its former Glory, is to have such Officers set over them, who understand and delight to do their Duty, and to facilitate so good and necessary a Design, your Excellency may depend upon it, that his Majesty's Council will do every Thing that belongs to them for the obtaining a Law that shall render the Militia both formidable to his Majesty's Enemies and respectable to ourselves.

We have the utmost Reason to believe your Excellency is not mistaken, while you flatter yourself that the Assembly of this Year will be distinguished by a zealous Regard to the Interest of the Province; and in all Measures of Importance, which you may judge conducive to that End, we are sure of your Excellency's Concurrence.

BOSTON, June 10

TUESDAY last being the anniversary of his Majesty's Birth Day, when he entered the 34th Year of his Reign, Upon an unanimous Vote of the honorable House of Representatives, unanimously concurr'd by the honorable Board, that the said Day should be celebrated (with all the Demonstrations of Joy that could be out of the Metropolis) the same was observ'd accordingly.

At Five o'Clock His Majesty's Council, and the Speaker with the honorable House of Representatives, adjourn'd to Capt. Stedman's, where a very genteel Repast was provided at the Expence of the Province, and his Majesty's Health, with many other loyal and constitutional Toasts were drank. Every Thing was carried on with the greatest Demonstrations of Loyalty to the King.

In this Town the Batteries were fired at Twelve o'Clock, as also the Cannon of the Train of Artillery under Capt. Paddock, the Company being mustered on the Occasion, and marched to King-Street, where they performed many military Manœuvres with such Order and Regularity as gave Pleasure to a large Number of Spectators.—At one o'Clock the guns at Castle William, and on board his Majesty's Ships in the Harbour were fired.

The same Day Afternoon his Excellency the Governor gave an elegant Entertainment at the British Coffee-House, to the Officers of his Majesty's Navy, Army and Customs. ¶ Mass. Gaz.

We are informed that no Gentlemen were present at his Excellency's Entertainment on Tuesday last but Crown Officers. ¶

In the Evening a Ball was given by Mrs. Gambier at Concert-Hall, where were present his Excellency the Governor, the Commissioners of the Customs, and a Number of Gentlemen and Ladies. ¶

We are assured that Concert-Hall on Tuesday Evening last was guarded by Ten Soldiers!—a Circumstance which has not taken Place in this Town since the Evening of the 5th of March 1770, when the horrible Massacre was perpetrated.

It is said that the Company at Concert-Hall on Tuesday Evening did not disperse 'till the Morning following. His ——— the ——— being the first that mov'd. ¶

Wednesday the Hon. Thomas Cushing, Esq; was unanimously chosen by both Houses of Assembly, Commissary-General.

Thomas Goldthwait, Esq; was chosen Truck-master for Fort Pownall.

To which we hear his Excellency has consented.

We hear that JOHN LEVERETT, Esq; is appointed Lieutenant-Colonel of the Regiment of Militia of this Town, in the Room of THOMAS MARSHALL, Esq; who had resigned.

Wednesday departed this Life, that venerable Servant of Christ, the Rev'd. Mr. SAMUEL PHILLIPS, Pastor of the South Church in Andover, in his 82d. Year.

Married.] Mr. John Langdon, Bookseller and Stationer, to Miss Polly Walley, Daughter to Mr. Thomas Walley, Merchant.

Mr. Robert Nesbit, of Providence, Merchant, to Miss Sally Malcom, Daughter of the late Capt. Daniel Malcom, of this Town.

We hear from Rutland-District in the County of Worcester, the following remarkable Articles. That on the 21st of May at Night, the Wolves killed and wounded 54 Sheep and three Swine belonging to three Persons: ——On the 22d in the Day time they attacked two Men in two different Places of that District; one of which was followed within one Rod of a Dwelling-House, and was catch'd by his cloaths and pulled down, but rescued by a Dog. The Night following they beset the Cows in the Barn Yard and the Swine in the Stye of Mr. Nathaniel Jennison of that Place, who gives us the Information, the Noise of the Creatures waked the People of the House, who immediately went to their Relief, and with a Charge of Small Shot killed a large Wolf within 30 Feet of the Dwelling-House, but there had been 8 Cows, 7 Swine and one Horse wounded.

From several Parts of the Country we learn, that considerable Damage has been done to the Grass, &c. by a destructive Species of Worms, against which the industrious Husbandman cannot secure his Lands.

By Capt. Richardson arrived at Rhode Island (1) last Week from North-Carolina, we learn, That Governor Tryon, with near 2000 Men were within 40 Miles of the Regulators, who consisted of between 2 and 3000, were entrenched, and had determined to defend themselves at all Events.—'Tis also said that the Regulators had cut off the Communication of 800 Men, who were going to join Governor Tryon; so that we may soon expect to hear some dismal Accounts from thence. W

By a Vessel from Magdalene Islands, we learn, that Capt. Smith, in a Brig from London for this Place, who has been some time expected, was lately cast away at a Place called Whitehead, near Canso, the People, 'tis said are saved, but the Vessel with a valuable Cargo, its tho't will be lost.—We also hear that four or five outward bound Whaling Sloops were drove ashore and wreck'd near the same Place. vid. pa. 495.

Yesterday died here, Isaac Parker, aged 19 Years, Son of Mr. Thomas Parker, Mason.

Same Day the Bonetta arm'd Sloop of War arrived here from Georgia; South & N. Carolina.

We hear from Falmouth, Casco-Bay, that on Monday Evening May 27th, was Married there, Mr. JONATHAN BRYANT of that Place, to Miss ELIZABETH WEEKS, Daughter of the late Mr. LEMUEL WEEKS, of that Place, deceased, a young Lady endowed with every Qualification to render the Marriage State happy.

FROM what was whispered by the friends of government, a few days before the election of Councellors we could not help flattering ourselves that the Assembly of this year would be distinguished by a zealous regard to the Interest of the Province"—and that "the General Court of 1772 would in our annals be stiled the healing parliament"—We were assured by some who are said to be in the Cabinet, that the provincial garrison would be restored at Castle-William, the Assembly convened at Boston its ancient place, the negative'd gentlemen, (c) if again elected Councellors, approved, and that there would be a concurrence in sentiment upon all Measures of importance that should come before the Assembly. And our hopes of all this became sanguine, when we saw the Speech ushered in with a declaration from the Chair, that his E——y thought himself warranted to transmit accounts to England the last Fall, of a general disposition in the People of this Province to promote Order and a due Submission to Government. We certainly had reason to expect that since his Majesty's Subjects of this Province were at length reduced to a state of Order, Happiness, Peace and Prosperity, which had given the greatest satisfaction, every conciliating step would also have been taken on the part of Administration—But though the establishing Harmony is an object very much to be wished, yet we find that one or two Negatives * are still necessary, for some secret reasons of State, and the return of the Assembly to Boston, however conducive in the opinion of the House, to the real Interest of the Province is suspended!—It is a great pity that his E——y did not, when he thought himself warranted to transmit so favourable an account, state to the Ministry the importance of this being allowed to make use of the powers which the House say he is by the Charter fully vested with, of adjourning the Court to Boston if he shall judge it necessary.

* See Draper's last Gazette.

LAST Week arrived from New-York in the Speedwell, Capt. Smith, a Pair of Clothier's Shares manufactured by the ingenious Mr. Atherton of Dutchess County, on an improved Plan; found to be superior to any Thing of the Kind that has yet appeared in the World. The Blades are each placed on the Bow by a Joint, removeable at Pleasure, to whet or grind them. The Apparatus for working them, is also rendered highly convenient, and the Workmanship thro' the whole, performed in such a masterly Manner, that they need only to be seen by proper Judges in order to determine whether any further in that Way needs to be imported from Great Britain. They may be viewed at the House of Doctor Young, Royal-Exchange Lane, Boston. The Price Six Pounds three Shillings Lawful Money.

Tuesday last arrived here Capt. Wilson from Glasgow, which he left the 1st of May ; and Capt. Jenkins from London, which he left the 23d of April: The latest Papers are to the 20th, which contains the following Articles:

LONDON, April 10. 1771.

April 17. Three ships of the line, and four frigates are now sitting out from Portsmouth and Plymouth that are ordered to relieve Commodore Gambier, at Boston. This force is intended to guard the coast, from Nova-Scotia to the Cape Henry, in Virginia, from the fatal effects of prohibited trade, which is now carried on in defiance of the act of navigation, and the manifest injury of the Mother country in general. At Spithead, Admiral Hughes, with 29 Sail of Men of War.

April 19. Yesterday, about One o'Clock, Serjeant Glynn made a Motion in the Court of Common Pleas, for an Habeas Corpora to remove the Bodies of the Right Hon. the Lord Mayor and Alderman Oliver out of the Tower ; in which he was seconded by Serjeant Jephson.

After the Affidavit and the Letter of Commitment had been read, the Lord Chief Justice granted the Habeas Corpora.

When Lord North opened the Bunget on Wednesday, he took a View of the present State of Affairs, both foreign and domestic ; laughed at the late Riots, and all Mobs ; censured the late Petitions and Remonstrances ; and blamed the ten Gentlemen who divided the House Twenty-three Times upon a Question respecting the Privileges of their own House.

Mr. Cornewall objected to raise the Supplies by Way of Lottery, unless a Clause was inserted, restricting the Members of that House from receiving any Number of Tickets from the Minister, by way of Douceur for past or future Services. He also expressed a Wish (in vain) that the Dissolution of that Assembly might speedily take Place.

Mr. Burke, the Right Hon. Thomas Townshend, Mr. Alderman Townsend, and many other Minority Gentlemen, attacked the Ministry with great Warmth and Spirit upon their late Proceedings respecting domestic and foreign Affairs.

Neither the Premier, nor any of his Friends, return'd Answers to the many weighty Objection made use of by several Members to the Contents of the Budget. After he had opened it, he threw himself back in his Seat, in his usual manner, with his Arm across, and the rest of the Treasury Bench imitated him, secure in the Knowledge of the Number of their Votes.

April 20. Prince Gallitzin, the Russian Minister at the Hague, has received a letter from Count Romanzow, dated March 15, giving an account of his having taken the town and fortress of Guirgiu, on the Danube, which was defended obstinately by 10,000 Turks, and covered by two intrenchments, from both of which they were driven, with the loss of 4000 men killed ; after which the remainder retired to the castle for several days, when a magazine of powder blowing up, the remainder, amounting to about 3000, on account of the want of provisions, were suffered to join the main body of their army. Sixty-two pieces of brass cannon, two mortars, and a vast quantity of warlike stores, were likewise taken. The Russians had only 400 killed, and 100 wounded ; amongst the latter, the Generals Gottenhelm and Molino, and Col. Count Natali.

There has been no shock, no misunderstanding at St. James ; the K—g will not give way : Lord North is firm and acceptable to him, his Conduct is approved of and has met with applause and grateful acknowledgement. No change was dreamt of—none will happen. The measures of Government, though moderate, are determined and unalterable : Those of Opposition have left such a Stigma of Folly and Brutality on their Names, that to admit them into Office would add Contempt and Disgrace to ruin.

BOSTON, June 10.

Monday last being the Anniversary of the Election of Officers of the ancient and honourable Artillery Company : In the Morning the Company appeared under Arms, and at Eleven o'clock waited on his Excellency the Governor, his Honor the Lieutenant-Governor, the Honorable his Majesty's Council, and those of the Honorable House of Representatives that were in Town, with a Number of the Clergy and other Gentlemen, to the Old Brick Meeting-House, where a Sermon on this Occasion was preached by the Rev'd Mr. ELI FORBES, of Brookfield, from those Words in Exod. 15. 3. The Lord is a Man of War : the Lord is his Name.

After Divine Service, his Excellency the Governor, with the other Gentlemen went in Procession to Faneuil-Hall, where an elegant Dinner was provided by the Company ; after Dinner a Number of loyal Toasts were drank ; and at about 3 o'clock the Company marched into the Common, when they performed the military Exercises to the great Satisfaction of a vast Concourse of People.—The Officers for the last Year then returned their Badges to his Excellency the Governor, who was pleased to deliver them to the new-elected Officers for the Year ensuing, viz.

Capt. SAMUEL BARRETT, Captain.
Lieut. WILLIAM BELL, Lieutenant.
Mr. JOHN DEMING, Ensign.

The new-elected Serjeants having their Halberds delivered to them, the Company returned to the Hall, where a cold Repast was provided by the new-commissioned Officers, and when the Company was dismissed, went into the Hall, and partook of the same : The Evening concluded with again drinking a Number of loyal Toasts.

TO BE SOLD,

A forril Mare about 14 Hands high, seven Years old, suitable for a Chaise or Trucks, and will carry two Persons to Philadelphia as soon as any Horse in America. Enquire of Benjamin Harrod, of Boston, or Cadwallador Ford, Esq; in Wilmington.

The Schooner DEFIANCE,
James Shepherd, Master, bound from hence to MADEIRA and directly back, will sail with all possible Dispatch. Any Persons inclining to order WINES by her from thence on Freight will receive them in the best Season of the Year. Apply to the said Master, or at Warehouse No. 5 on Long-Wharf.
